CONGRESS CLOSING FOR CHRISTMAS RECESS

HOUSE DELAYS ACTION UPON TARIFF MEASURE

SPEEDY ACTION WAS TAKEN BY CONGRESS ON TAX REDUCTION

FRENCH DEBT SETTLEMENT, VARE OUSTER, EMERGENCY BILLS AT TARIFF EXPENSE

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Dec. 21.—Congress is closing its doors for the Christmas recess today with only two of the remaining 1,200 paragraphs in the tariff bill acted upon since it convened in regular session three weeks ago.

The senate was more than half way through the tariff when the regular session started, but in the press of extraneous business, two items of the wool schedule were all that have been approved in the bill since that time.

Delay in the tariff brought speedier action on the administration's $160,000,000 tax reduction, the French debt settlement, the ouster of William S. Vare of Pennsylvania from the senate, the induction of the new Senator Joseph R. Grundy in Vare's place and the adoption of numerous emergency bills such as that to extend the life of the federal radio commission. All these have been disposed of at the expense of the tariff bill.

In view of this embarrassing situation, leaders of all senate factions have entered a gentleman's agreement to keep the tariff bill continuously before the senate to the exclusion of all other business when congress reconvenes Jan. 6. Even the rush order government supply bills will be held up so the tariff can be finished at the earliest possible moment, which now appears to be late in January or early in February.

The leaders are not dismayed at the future delay of the tariff. They believe they have handled a record-breaking amount of business, which had to be passed. The remaining tariff schedules to be considered are wool, sugar, books, papers, rayon and silk, sundries and the free list.

Only routine business is scheduled for the closing day. Many senators and representatives have returned to their homes upon the promise of the leaders that no business will be transacted and it is doubtful whether a quorum of either the house or the senate is now available.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Congress is proving it is not Santa Claus for President Hoover's law enforcement commission.

Two extremely dry democrats, Senators Harris, Georgia, and Glass, Virginia, have given warning they will oppose appropriations of a single dollar to the commission until it opens its doors and reveals what it is doing.

Influential members of the commission are opposed to public revelations regarding their work at present. They want to spend several years on the job, making the first thorough and scientific survey ever conducted of crime and all of its problems. They include prohibition. But they oppose giving it a great prominence. They wish to link it with other phases of the crime problem such as the effect of unemployment, poverty, slums and other factors.

The United Press learns, however, that members of the commission have been somewhat appalled at the job confronting them. They say there are not even exact figures as to the total number of jails in the country. There is no map showing the roads on the Mexican and Canadian borders which are open to liquor and other smugglers. Lacking such elementary data, it is said at the commission, there is a long tedious job ahead.

While the commission realizes this does not provide spectacular fireworks for the prohibition controversy, there is a determination not to be stampeded into superficial and sensational activities, it is said.

There is some minority disposition, it is understood, to throw open the doors and plunge headlong into hearings on the prohibition question. Controlling opinion on the commission, which has been able thus far to prevent such a course, holds that to open up a public controversy on prohibition would subject the commission to a cross-fire of wet and dry haranguing which might distract it from the more plodding and thorough research it hopes to conduct.

Thus far President Hoover has supported the commission majority in its policy of silence. It is now a struggle between the president and some in congress who are trying to force open the doors.

St. Paul, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—The municipal affairs of the city of Benson were criticized sharply today by Henry Rines, state comptroller. Rines specifically charged that the city laid itself open to criticism by its methods of awarding certain contracts and he termed the city clerk's records "obsolete and inaccurate."

FIFTY GALLON STILL EXPLODES, 1 MAN INJURED

ALLEGED MOONSHINER OWES HIS LIFE TO TWO PROHIBITION OFFICERS

FIND WISCONSIN MAN IN HELPLESS CONDITION AND TAKE HIM TO HOSPITAL

Wausau, Wis., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—An alleged moonshiner who was seriously injured in the explosion of a 50-gallon still, owed his life today to two prohibition officers.

Vincent Shiblick, 50, was found by Officers Robert Empey and John Winans in a helpless condition at his farm near Mosinee. When they arrived to make an inspection of the premises on complaint of neighbors, Shiblick was in bed suffering from scalds received when the large still exploded, and suffering from exposure resulting from a subzero temperature in the house.

At the hospital here, where he was taken by Empey and Winans, doctors said Shiblick may suffer from pneumonia due to the exposure. His face, arms and back were badly burned when the still blew up and scattered its scalding contents over the owner and shattered the house.

Officers said the injured man told he was operating the still for Milwaukee men.

U. S. NAVY BARGE GOES AGROUND

New London, Conn., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—A navy barge, carrying several torpedoes from the submarine base here to the United States torpedo station at Newport, R. I., went aground in Buzzards Bay today.

Radio reports to the base from the navy tug Cheewink said the barge was on the east end of Cuttyhunk Island and being pounded by heavy seas.

Commander C. M. Elder, in charge of the submarine base, told the United Press several vessels, including the Cheewink and two coast guard boats, were standing by but that they were unable to determine extent of the damage to the barge.

Commander Elder said no men were aboard the barge.

JOIN IN WIDE SEARCH FOR THREE MISSING AVIATORS

Paris, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Flying scouts and seacraft of France, Italy and Great Britain joined today in a search for three French aviators, missing six days on a flight from Tunis to Saigon, French Indo China.

The searchers worked systematically, covering land and sea between Tunis and Egypt seeking Victor Joseph Lassalle, Marcel Rebard and Raymond Salot, who last were reported on Sunday as they left Tunis. Heavy mountain storms were reported in their path.

CAUGHT IN ACT OF ROBBING HOUSE

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—A man who gave his name as Robert Scharte, 33, of Superior and was identified as having served prison sentences at Waupun, Wis., and Stillwater, Minn., was under arrest here today on a charge of attempted burglary. Police said they arrested Scharte in the act of robbing a house and that he was armed.

TWO BABIES AND GRANDFATHER BURNED TO DEATH

Elkhorn, Wis., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—While the rest of the family attended a Christmas party at the township school, two babies and their grandfather were burned to death near here last night when fire destroyed the farm home of James Carey.

Carey, his wife and their three other children came home to find their home in ashes and the charred bodies of the victims being removed by neighbors.

The dead: Henry Stowenborg, 65, Mrs. Carey's father; Patsey Carey, 3, and Mabel Carey, 17 months.

5 Naval Powers Stand to Save Over Billion Dollars if Naval Conference Is Successful

UNITED STATES SHARE WOULD BE $370,000,000

LONDON PARLEY EXPECTED TO BRING ALL NAVAL ARMAMENTS UNDER CONTROL

FRANCE DISPATCHES ITS VIEWPOINTS TO U. S., JAPAN, ITALY AND GREAT BRITAIN

By LYLE C. WILSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 21.—Five nations, the world's naval powers, stand to save more than one billion dollars in six years if the hope created by Japanese-American conversations is realized in the London conference scheduled to begin Jan. 21. The United States' share would be about $370,000,000.

The Washington arms conference authorized the five powers to lay 32 capital ship keels as follows: United States, 10; Great Britain, 10; Japan, 6; Italy, 3; France, 3. These new vessels would replace craft now in service. The average cost of a capital ship is estimated at $37,000,000.

Under Secretary Cotton, Ambassador Morrow, Admiral William V. Pratt, George Rublee and J. Theodore Marriner, chief of the state department's western European division, began the analysis of the program presented to American officials by the Japanese delegates who paused here en route to London, yesterday.

Inquiry indicates the United States will support, or might initiate a suggestion to postpone capital ship replacement until 1936 when another naval conference is contemplated. The largest economic results expected from the London conference are considered by American officials to be obtainable by that means.

The London conference is expected to bring all naval armaments under control, and possibly to achieve reduction in the cruiser, destroyer and submarine classes. But the potential money saving in these classes is not comparable with the $1,184,000,000 which would be saved by postponing replacement of 32 battleships. Although the present conference is not considered the proper time to suggest abolition of capital ships, there are indications President Hoover hopes to achieve that in 1936 when another conference is to be called to consolidate results of one schedule to begin next month.

Paris, Dec. 21.—A memorandum containing France's general viewpoint on naval disarmament pertaining to the five power conference in London next month was dispatched from the Quai D'Orsay today to the United States, Japan, Italy and Great Britain.

Copies were sent out simultaneously to Washington, Tokio and Rome while

The marriage will be celebrated in June after Nelson finishes his course at Dartmouth College.

TO CONFER HONORS ON MADAME CURIE

Paris, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—France will shortly repair a neglect by conferring on Madame Curie, famous worker with radium, the collar of Commander of the Legion of Honor.

An exception will be made in the case of Madame Curie, for she has never been made a knight, but will step into the third grade of the order without passing through the other two. She will be the first woman ever honored in that fashion.

Great Britain's copy will be delivered to the British foreign office probably this afternoon by M. A. De Dleuriau, French ambassador to London.

The French memorandum emphasized the following points in the nation's attitude towards the London conference:

1. Naval disarmament constitutes only a part of the general problem of limitation of armaments which sought to be regulated by the League of Nations.
2. Naval, land and aerial armaments should be considered as interdependent.
3. The French demands for tonnage will be based only on the needs of France.
4. The naval problem should be considered from the viewpoint of guarantees of security necessary for each country.

50 LIVES CLAIMED BY SEVERE COLD IN MIDDLE WEST

AS WINTER SETTLES DOWN IN NORTHWEST, OTHER PLACES THREATENED BY FLOODS

FRIGID WEATHER PREDICTED FOR TOMORROW AND UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Chicago, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Winter, an unofficial guest so far, observed the first day of his official regime by settling down as if for a protracted stay in the middle west.

Frigid weather was predicted for tomorrow and probably until Christmas, indicating the heavy blanket of snow laid during the furious blizzard of the last few days would remain on the ground.

The toll of death and suffering mounted slowly, although the worst apparently was over. As belated reports came in from regions cut off from communication by the storm, it was estimated approximately 50 lives had been claimed as a result of the cold, blizzard and snow packed highways and streets.

Flood hazards threatened in many places as the heaviest snowfall since January, 1918, began to find its way into streams and rivers. The Wabasha stood at 16 feet after a rise of one foot at Mount Carmel, Ill.

A Big Four freight train puffed through to rescue 100 motor tourists stranded at Pana, Ill., and at Danville a bobsled was utilized to bear a coffin to a cemetery after the funeral cortege was stalled.

The most serious aftermath of the storm in the Chicago area was the closing of the East Chicago, Ind., water works by needle ice in the intake. High waves in Lake Michigan prevented repair.

More snow was promised for Michigan, but other central states had only the forlorn prospect of near zero temperatures.

Far southern areas were getting a taste of northern winter. The heaviest December snow in 50 years lay over western Texas and southern New Mexico. El Pasoans waded through 5.3 inches, which had fallen for five hours.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Engineer Robert White made his last run, through a snow swept section of Indiana on time.

He rolled his Chicago and Great Western train into the station, waited for the passengers to get off, then took it to the round house. As he brought the train to a stop he died. Physicians said the intense cold had aggravated heart disease.

BOOTLEGGERS MOVE TO CAVES FOR THE WINTER

STEARNS COUNTY STILL OPERATORS HIBERNATING UNDERGROUND

RAIDERS FIND STEAM RISING THROUGH TRAP DOORS ABOVE CAVE

St. Paul, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Bootleggers of Stearns county have moved their stills to underground caves for the winter months, agents of the north-west prohibition bureau here reported today.

Federal enforcement agents Friday raided three liquor manufacturing plants in the county, discovering two of the stills under the ground. The raids were made when steam was seen rising through trap doors on the caves.

Those arrested and held for arraignment were:

John Bierschavach, charged with operating a 100 gallon still three miles south of El Rosa.

Theodore Finneman and Matt Grau, charged with operating a 75-gallon still near St. Cloud.

Charles Winters and Roman Felling, charged with operating an above ground still near New Munich.

The reason for the underground manufacturing is that mash will not ferment in the open air, the federal agents said.

WAR DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATES TRAGIC CRASH AT WASHINGTON

Washington, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—The war department today was investigating the tragic crash of the huge tri-motored Fokker at Bolling field in which five men, including Rep. William K. Kaynor, republican, Massachusetts, and his secretary were killed.

A summary investigation by Assistant Secretary of War Davidson yesterday held out little hope that any definite cause for the accident ever would be established. From all appearances, he said, a stiff gust of wind struck the ship just as Capt. Harry A. Dinger, crack army pilot, was making a turn at about 400 feet altitude. Those killed were Rep. Kaynor, Stanley B. Lowe of Springfield, Mass., his secretary; Arthur A. McGill of Boston, a friend of Kaynor; Capt. Dinger and Private Vladimir Kuzma, mechanic.

DANCER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE, ROOMMATE THWARTS EFFORT

New York, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Joyce White, 19, dancer, attempted suicide today and her roommate, Leili Montfere, 19, also a dancer who tried suicide with iodine earlier in the week, jerked the bottle of ammonia from her lips.

Miss White, whose condition is not serious, said she "wanted to die" because her husband, Harry Silver, threatened to sue for divorce.

Miss Montfere drained a bottle of iodine to prove to a "gentleman friend" that she was not "afraid to die."

NEGRO CHILD BORN AS MOTHER IS ABOUT TO BOARD ELEVATED

Chicago, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—Elevated Adams Wabasha Transfer Morris was one Christmas present not delayed by the holiday rush. He arrived, squawling lustily, as his mother, Mrs. Anna Morris, 25, a negress, was about to board an elevated train at the Adams-Wabasha station.

Platform guards ran to the aid of the Santa Claus work and summoned an ambulance.

"What's his name going to be?" asked a guard as he assisted the mother and son into the conveyance.

Mrs. Morris gazed about in bewilderment until her eyes rested on the station sign.

"Elevated . . . Adams Wabasha . . . Transfer," she gasped.

And so it is on the official records.

IN TROUBLE SOUTH OF THE ISLE OF PINES

STEERING GEAR LOST AND SHIP SETTLING IN TROUGH OF SEA

"ATHELCHIEF," ONE OF THREE STEAMERS, FIRST TO GIVE HER AID

Boston, Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—The steamer Santa Ana, leaking badly 130 miles south of the Isle of Pines, which is directly south of Cuba, has lost its steering gear and is "barely able to keep afloat."

This report was relayed to Tropical Radio here at 11:30 A. M. today by the United Fruit steamer Tolosa, one of three vessels speeding to the aid of the sinking ship. The Tolosa was in direct communication with the Santa Ana.

The message received here from the Tolosa read:

"Santa Ana reports 10:50 A. M. steering gear gone and ship had settled in trough of sea. Barely able to keep afloat."

The Tolosa was making all possible speed in a race to cut down the nearly 300 miles believed to separate it from the sinking steamer.

Shortly afterwards, however, advice was received that the steamer Athelchief had arrived along side the Santa Ana at 11:40 A. M.

Boston, Dec. 21.—The steamer Santa Ana is leaking badly and is in distress 130 miles south of the Isle of Pines, south of Cuba, according to an SOS relayed to the Tropical Radio Company here today.

The SOS, timed 10 A. M., had been picked up by the United Fruit Company's steamer Abangarez while the latter craft was about 20 miles northeast of Cozumel Island, off the Yucatan Peninsula, Mexico.

According to the report received by the Abangarez, the Santa Ana, leaking badly, was steering northward.

The message stated that the United Fruit steam Tolosa and the steamships Gatun and Athelchief were speeding to the Santa Ana's assistance.

EIGHT DE MOLAYS

Seventy Masons Attend Rites; Talks are Given by the Officials

Eight boys received the Initiatory and the DeMolay Degrees last evening when the Roosevelt Chapter of DeMolays met at the Masonic Hall. In order to confer the two degrees the same evening on the one class, the chapter received a special dispensation from "Dad" Carey of Duluth, State Advisor.

Those receiving the degrees were: Zane Smith, Charles Mitchell, Richard Ebert, Gustav Hanson, Roger Wycle of Pillager, Malcolm Runberg, William Hermann and George Fox.

The initiatory degree was put on by Russell Lind, master counselor, assisted by other officials, and the DeMolay Degree was put on by Howard Brotherson as Master Inquisitor and Malcolm Elison as Jacques DeMolay, assisted by other officials.

Preceding the conferring of the degrees, talks were given by Levi Johnson, "Dad" Mitchell, the deputy state advisor; J. P. Anderson, Edward Crust, Sr., Rev. C. M. Brandon, and John Fisher, the local Legion of Honor Member.

The DeMolay boys last evening also voted to give baskets to some of the poor families of the city at Christmas. A lunch was served at the close of the evening, and the dishes were washed by the newly initiated candidates. A large number of Masons were present at the initiation, about seventy in all being in attendance.

NEWSBOY IS FIRST TO BUY TICKET FOR PARAMOUNT OPENING

"Oh gee! Oh gosh! This is even sweeter than the Minnesota theatre. Real clouds and stars and everything, and look at them, move. There they go; hear 'em talk, and they sing. Boy, ain't that sumpin!"

Such was juvenile Brainerd's greeting to the new Paramount theatre, as expressed by Floyd Brooks, 12-year-old carrier for the Brainerd Daily Dispatch, who was the first person to buy a ticket when the boxoffice of the beautiful new Publix show house was thrown open for the first time this morning.

Floyd, who is the son of H. B. Brooks, 824 10th avenue northeast, was followed to the window by his 11-year-old buddy, Billy Miller, son of John Miller, 621 South Fifth street. With hundreds of other youngsters, they had patiently awaited the actual opening of the theatre since early this morning, some of them arriving for a preliminary survey of the situation as early as 8 o'clock.

Most of the youngsters were so flabbergasted at the miraculous changes that had been made in what they recalled as "the old Park theatre" that they just simply couldn't speak. They crowded down the aisles in awe and amazement, one surprise after another grasping their attention, sweeping them off their feet.

They listened attentively to the newscast, cheered the singing cartoon comedy, chuckled to the wise cracks of the talking comedy, and passed up their noonday meal to worry "Halfway to Heaven" with Buddy Rogers and Jean Arthur, only to inquire if there was any rule against staying over for a second look at "that funny song."

Ruzich-Thomas

Miss Mary Thomas and Frank Ruzich, both of Crosby, were united in marriage this morning at the judge of probate office, Judge L. B. Kinder performing the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Tom Thomas of Crosby, and Mr. Ruzich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruzich, living in Jugo-Slavia. Miss Dorothy Emundovich of Crosby was the bridesmaid, and Paul Tomilemonich, also of Crosby, was best man. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few close friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride wore a gown of shell pink silk crepe, made in the princess lines with uneven hemline. There were several founes of wide lace on the skirt. She wore a long veil, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her slippers were of white kid. The bridesmaid wore a peach pink gown made on the same lines as the bride's, and her slippers were of tan. The bride's flowers were pink posies and white sweet peas, those of the bridesmaid being yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for Crosby where they will make their future home. Mr. Ruzich is employed at the Milford mine near Crosby.

Those who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ruzich from Crosby were her sister, Miss Rose Thomas and her brother Tom Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pachyak and Miss Myrtle Machen.

Thorpe-Goble

Miss Bernice Goble of Pequot and Ernest A. Thorpe of International Falls were united in marriage Friday afternoon at the Bethlehem Lutheran parsonage, Rev. J. R. Michaelson officiating, using the Lutheran ring ceremony. The witnesses were Miss Iona Rines and Rudolph Wicklund. The newlyweds will make their home at International Falls.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

December 20, 1904

Dr. Werner Hemstead is in the field with a proposition to erect a gas plant in the city. At the meeting of the city council last night an ordinance was introduced which, if passed, would grant him a 30 year franchise to operate a gas plant in Brainerd. Under the provisions of the ordinance Mr. Hemstead agrees that he will erect a plant that will have the capacity of furnishing at least 20,000 cubic feet of gas in 24 hours and that the cost of the same will not exceed $2.50 per cubic foot to the consumer.

Walter Willet of Northeast Brainerd, while out hunting last Sunday found a rabbit's foot in one of his traps. In his eagerness to save the lucky rabbit's foot, he upset his rifle and put a shot through his arm.

J. M. Elder received the sad intelligence by wire this morning that his mother who is quite aged, had fallen down a stairs and broken her hip at her home at Owensboro, Ky. Mr.

Elder may leave for Owensboro in a few days.

Mrs. J. M. Elder and son Monroe left this afternoon for an extended visit with relatives in her old home in New York state.

Fred Swanson returned from the Minnesota university today to spend Christmas with his parents.

The Christmas cantata, "The Birth of Christ," will be put on at Walker hall tomorrow and Thursday evenings. An excellent cast has been selected for the rendition of this beautiful piece and they have been thoroughly drilled under the direction of Mrs. Butts and Miss Baker.

John Mitchell, an old time resident of this county, passed away this morning at St. Joseph's hospital after a lingering illness. He has made his home for several years with Mr. and Mrs. Parker Walte.

December 21, 1904

It is now an assured fact that the Brainerd Lumber company will not operate its mills in this city the coming season unless something unforeseen happens. The company is doing no logging at all this winter and there are no logs on hand. The company has a large stock of lumber on hand and this will be disposed of as rapidly as possible. It is confidently believed by many that so good a mill as the one located in Brainerd will never remain idle and it is asserted in lumber circles that the Weyerhaeusers have an eye on this mill and in view of the fact that their pulp mill is located at the dam and they have also assumed control of the dam, this rumor is not entirely without foundation.

John H. Ley, the directory publisher is distributing his new book today and he is being congratulated on all hands for the book is without doubt one of the nearest directories yet published by this enterprising gentleman. This is the third book Mr. Ley has compiled for Brainerd and the general excellence and accuracy seems to increase each year. This new volume contains 4,137 names of persons above the age of 18 years (not counting the wife) and using the multiple 2½ as in our previous issues, gives Brainerd a population of 10,342.

Miss Vera Nevers returned this afternoon from Minneapolis where she is attending the university.

Yesterday the employees of the N. P. and M. & I. were paid off.

There was a small blaze yesterday morning at the home of John Richter on Third street north. The furniture was removed from the house before any damage was done to it and the house was only slightly damaged. Mrs. L. M. Follette is the owner.

JAIL LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huffman of Camp Nebi-wa-Nebi on Big Bay Lake visited Tuesday at the home of Mr. Huffman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman.

Glorene and Evelyn Glover were visitors Monday at the Anderson's. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Van Kempen and children attended church in Pine River Sunday.

Callers at the Glenn Glover home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huffman and children, Carlton and Harold Tollefson, Raymond, Orville, Ervin and Irene Van Kempen.

The Johnson boys were busy making snowfence last week which will be very much appreciated when the snow gets deep.

Pine River callers Monday from this community were Anderson's, Koppe's, Huffman's and Fred Hundley and son Jack.

Douglas Sautbine spent Saturday visiting at the home of O. O. Tollefson.

The children in District No. 95 are very busy these days preparing a Christmas program to be held Friday evening, Dec. 20.

We understand Mrs. Leon Glover is expected home Tuesday from the Brainerd hospital.

Plane Accident at Washington

THE DISPATCH hopes there will be a thorough investigation of the airplane accident at Washington, which yesterday cost five lives. The idea of the investigation is to determine the exact cause, not in a spirit seeking to give punishment if there was laxity in operation, but to find out exactly what caused it and to guard against such happenings in the future.

Here we have a tri-motored plane similar to the two which were at the dedication of the Rosko airport. The Washington plane pilot was a man of great experience, an ace in his profession. There was no storm raging when the plane rose on its ill-fated lift of only 300 feet and then side-slipped.

Almost the same kind of an accident occurred near the St. Paul airport months ago, but there the pilot sacrificed his life to save his passengers.

Accidents will occur in aviation, a new science, with a frequency similar to that of older methods of transportation. In spite of years of operation of the railroads, wrecks will occur. Shipping is ages old, yet we find a huge liner groping its way through the fog near New York harbor and crashing into another liner.

In spite of all kinds of new machinery and substitutes for man power, we find the human equation has something to do in operation. If human intelligence fails to function in an emergency, the best machinery may be scrapped in the flash of an eye.

The Anoka Bridge

It is with real delight that pioneer motorists drive on the new Anoka bridge. They well remember the old structure, the remains of whose gaunt fabrication are still visible from the new bridge.

The old bridge was a sort of bottle-neck which required cautious driving. There was barely room for two cars, while a bus and a car could not pass each other on the bridge.

Continued growth of traffic will in time render the Laurel street Mississippi bridge of Brainerd obsolete. We hear reports of surveys made for a new route westward and of a bridge to be set south of the present structure. Our present bridge may not be able to sustain the weight of a truck carrying one of our war tanks on maneuver when we gain the new armory.

Highway Patrol

THE State Highway Patrol is to be a selected body.

A school to train the men will be conducted by the State Highway department next January, February and March. Fifty men will take the course, which will include lessons in courtesy, grammar, geography of Minnesota, traffic laws, automobile and motorcycle mechanics, first aid, boxing, wrestling, jiu jitsu and target practice.

Courtesy will come first in the course, and closely allied to this will be the lessons in grammar.

Earle Brown, chief of the patrol, is well known in Brainerd. He has a summer home on Mille Lacs lake and this year bought the Atkinson cottage and estate on North Long lake.

Lost in Northern Wastes

LOST over a month in the northern wastes, the search for Lieutenant Ben Eielson continues and his brother airmen from many points are seeking to locate the intrepid airman.

Eielson is acquainted with northern life and that is the only factor in favor of continuing hope that he has survived. His plane was equipped for winter landings and it is believed he was able to negotiate some harbor of safety.

If he has met death, it has been on a mission of mercy, for he was making flights to some ice-locked ship and relieving distress of its sailors.

Interesting Alumni in Association

BRAINERD high school may well copy the plan of Willmar high which seeks to stimulate interest among its alumni in a novel manner.

When the Willmar high school alumni association holds its annual meeting December 27, a new plan to arouse interest and increase attendance will be used by the committee in charge.

The plan is to invite husbands, wives and friends of the association members to the get-together and make them a part of the organization's activities.

PLANS for the eighth annual Central Minnesota Mid-Winter Seed and Poultry show, to be held at St. Cloud January 15 to 18, are nearing completion. A feature of the show this year will be the 4-H club exhibit. Plans call for the junior exhibit to consist entirely of booths, with only one class of regular exhibits permitted. Cash prizes aggregating $100 have been offered the winners of the booth displays.

It doesn't pay to get people "mad." The Duluth bandit who held up Grocer Mike Giacco would have succeeded had he acted in a gentlemanly manner. But when he took his gun and rapped the grocer on the head, it made the business man angry and in a nervous twist he grasped the robber's gun and shot him down.

A NEW dairy building and grandstand will be erected at the Morrison county fairgrounds by the Morrison County Cooperative Agricultural society. It is hoped to complete them before the fair opens next August.

EVELETH will open its hockey season against Hibbing on the Eveleth rink. Twenty games have been arranged for the season by the local team, ten of which will be at home.

THE medal for tending to the home fires goes to James D. Bell of Bell's Bridge, Tenn., who was born, lived and died in the same room of the village. He passed away at 98.

CHICAGO people with close to 15 inches snowfall imagine the whole world is so afflicted. Minnesota, where but little fell, is pictured by them as a veritable north pole.

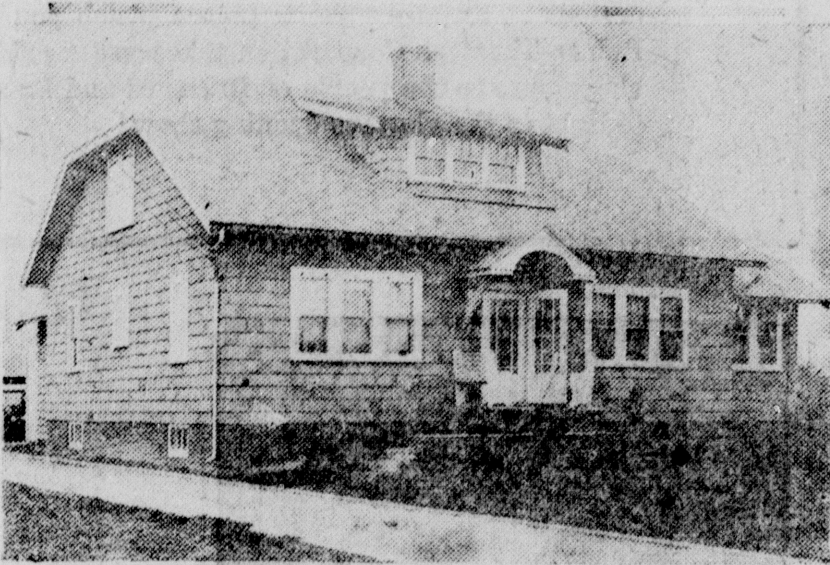

KEEP the road and sidewalk open for Kris Kringle's ambassadors, the rural route and the city letter carriers.

ARSENAL BARED BY SLAYING

The above picture shows a collection of sub-machine guns, rifles, shotguns and ammunition found in "Dan's" $25,000 bungalow.

HOME OF SLAYER

In this neat little house on the outside of St. Joseph, Mich., "Fred Dane" lived, known as a friendly neighbor and prosperous oil man. Then Policeman Charles Skelly was slain and "Dane," the slayer, was believed to be Frank Burke, notorious robber, and the home was found to be a cache for $319,850 in stolen bonds.

Sought as Slayer

Above, a regues' gallery picture of Fred Burke, believed by police to be "Fred Dane," St. Joseph, Mich., bank robber, who is being sought by posses as the slayer of Charles Skelly, St. Joseph traffic policeman.

BROADWAY'S 'WISE MONEY' LAID 5 TO 1 ON BENNY BASS

BOUT WITH MORGAN IS A SPECTACULAR ONE

JUNIOR LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF PRIZE RING ANNEXED BY BASS

FLOORED FOR COUNT OF 9 AT START, MORGAN SUCCEUMBS IN 51 SECONDS

By FRANK GETTY

(United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Dec. 21.—The "wise money" of Broadway was laid at odds of 5 to 1 against a champion last night, and the junior lightweight championship of the prize ring changed hands according to expectations.

Tod Morgan of Seattle, who had held and gallantly defended the title for more than four years, lost it to Benny Bass of Philadelphia, just as the "wise money" said he would.

Whether Bass will be allowed to keep the championship with the approval of the New York State Athletic Commission depends, however, upon the outcome of an official investigation which was launched immediately after the bout.

Chairman Jim Farley, who was at the ringside, ordered the purses held up, and said his commission would inquire into all circumstances surrounding the bout.

The fight itself was sufficiently spectacular to satisfy the average customer, however.

Two straight rights to the jaw early in the second round stretched Morgan on the canvas, his limbs helpless to obey the dictates of a fighting heart. Knocked down for a count of nine at the start of the round, Tod struggled up, only to run into a smashing right to the jaw which finished him, the end coming after 51 seconds.

Never before has a champion entered the ring on the short end of such betting as took place around Madison Square Garden, where a small crowd had gathered to watch the title fight, scheduled for 15 rounds. Morgan, who had defended the championship 15 times since winning it from Mike Ballerino in 1925, appeared in good shape at 128 pounds, with Bass one pound lighter.

During the first round, Morgan gave the majority of the crowd plenty of thrills. Tod swept into Bass with a flashing two-handed attack, caught the challenger off his guard and had him in retreat from the opening bell.

A left jab which constantly sent Benny back on his heels and a lightning right cross drove the challenger around the ring and it appeared as though the "wise money" might have been placed ill-advisedly after all.

But the silent, furtive-eyed gentry in the ringside seats sat tight and said nothing and the second round saw their confidence amply justified.

Bass, apparently unhurt, made short work of the Seattle boy. He staggered Tod with a left hook to the head and shot a straight right to the jaw. Morgan went down on his face. He got up at the count of nine, but another right dropped him for the long count and a new champion's hand was raised as Tod was carried to his corner.

The Philadelphian is 25 years of age. His record recently has been impressive. His last title fight was when he lost the decision to Tony Canzoneri in a bout for the featherweight championship, Benny fighting the last nine rounds with a broken collarbone. The paid attendance was only 8,429, the gross receipts $34,550.78 and the net receipts $28,380.73.

LAWYERS IN SECOND HALF MILLION DOLLAR CASE TO MAKE STATEMENT SOON

MRS. KATHERINE FOGARTY ABANDONS HER CHARGE OF BREACH OF PROMISE

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 21.—(UP)—Gene Tunney was almost out of the legal wilderness today.

One of the $500,000 damage suits against him had been withdrawn and lawyers in the second half-million dollar action were expected to make an announcement soon.

Announcement that Mrs. Katherine King Fogarty had abandoned her suit to obtain $500,000 from the former heavyweight boxing champion on a charge of breach of promise was made by Judge Frank L. Wilder, who was granted permission to withdraw from the case in superior court late yesterday.

Attorney Homer S. Cummings of Stamford indicated Tunney desires to fight the case to a definite conclusion. "We will not agree to withdrawal of the action," Cummings asserted. "We want a judgment in the case and expect to get it Friday."

The definite date for the opening home game of the season will be set within the next few days.

Karel KOZELUH...

BURNLEY 12-21

THE SPORT BUG

NOT a shadow falls athwart the sunlight of their titles—for the present they are world's champions—without a serious challenger in sight—they are the year's sport standouts. In that wise does Miss Helen Wills dominate women's tennis; and Karel Kozeluh looms above the male stars in that game, though official competition with amateurs is denied him because he is a professional and has been such for many years.

Even sport followers unfamiliar with tennis know the salient facts illuminating the remarkable career of Miss Wills. Early in 1926, she was defeated by the extraordinary Suzanne Lenglen in France, the victory definitely establishing the winner as the women's tennis champion of the world. Later Lenglen became a professional, a field thus far in which there are not many great female players. Ever since, few if any have imperilled "Queen Helen's" regal sway.

This year, Miss Wills again went abroad and, like in this country, she won all her matches decisively. No opponent came even close to winning.

Almost as completely as "Our Helen" holds sway in women's tennis, the amazing Karel Kozeluh masters male racket-wielders just as he has done for more than a decade. Many critics rate the Czech-Slovak as the greatest tennis player of all time. As a pro he cannot compete for amateur titles but, in private, he has defeated consistently many a court champion.

Last year, Vincent Richards turned pro at the peak of his form and won a hard-fought series against Kozeluh. This year, the latter defeated Richards in impressive style. The leading American pro is one of those who believe that the veteran Czech genius is still the mightiest of all court champions. And Richards ought to know. He played Tilden in his prime and scores of other amateur brilliants.

Thoughts for Christmas By Edward L. Lemon
In Boston Globe
LOOK not through the glass darkly, If nerves are taut, And you are wrought, Seek ever for the light. The word unkind disdain, To others giving pain. Beauty around you everywhere, Never the view dispel, On moody thoughts to dwell, And do not troubles grow— Breathing joy and hope, One will never mope. Make life a picture fine, Forget unpleasant things, Full measure gladness brings. Be responsive to the touch Of friendship, love, Place faith in God above. Though hazards clog the way, Push on in thankfulness To gain full happiness.

Each member had made a plan of her own kitchen and these were examined with a view of aiding the member group her supplies or equipment to make her kitchen more convenient. A number of the members are going to try serving a test meal to see how long it takes to prepare and serve a meal in the kitchen as it is now, and later rearranging the kitchen and preparing and serving the same kind of a meal and see how much time and energy she has saved by grouping her equipment more conveniently.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. J. Franz on Tuesday, Feb. 4. Each member is expected to bring any "pet" kitchen utensil she may have to this meeting.
A week ago Wednesday a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young to surprise them with a miscellaneous shower. They received many beautiful presents. A delicious lunch was served and the guests departed wishing them a happy wedded life.

Not So Slow
Fitted with a dictaphone, the sagoon car used by an inspector of London tea-shops is an office on wheels. He dictates into the machine while going his rounds, and when he is making his inspections his driver transcribes the notes on a portable typewriter.

The letter carrier is loaded down more than Santa Claus. Each day the post office becomes more crowded with incoming gifts. Each day his burden becomes heavier. He's been having a smile for you ever since last Christmas. He has rendered a service that makes us all remember him kindly. Mailing Christmas packages early will lighten this burden.

TAKE IT FROM DAD

By Frank H.

How to Get the Job You Want and Keep It

"Dad, we had a peach of a speaker at our assembly today, on the 'High Cost of Living.' Set us all to thinking that perhaps we are not as industrious as we ought to be and that, as he said, 'killing time is suicide.' So, I'm looking for a job! But the trouble is, how's a fellow going to get the job he wants—and then keep it?"

Mr. Smithhough laughed outright. "Bob, I hope your streak of industry has come to stay. I think myself it's about time you began to cash some of your spare time both from the standpoint of learning to work, which is a very real accomplishment, as well as from the standpoint of financial return. College days are not so far away, and boy, they do take cash. Undoubtedly, one of the outstanding characteristics of successful men is that somewhere, sometime, they learned to work. These days we hear a good deal about 'lucky breaks' and 'pull' and all the rest but let me tell you one thing now; things in this world never just happen. There is always a reason for everything; so with successful accomplishment. It is not the result of lucky breaks; it is not a thing of chance except in the movies. It comes to men only because they work hard and intelligently for it and along legitimate lines.

"Now, as I understand it, you want to know what your prospects are; how to get a truly desirable job, and then how to keep it. Well, as you know, I have some rather definite convictions along those very lines and I don't mind in the least sharing them with you—not by way of advice, however, but by way of observations—then you go to it and try them out for yourself. However, let me say positively that it is tremendously important that you do some thinking about jobs in general before you set out to hunt one in particular. Bear in mind that it is the potentiality of your job which should make it attractive, not necessarily the pay check. What are you learning while you are earning is the important point. Many men pay mighty dearly for their pay checks in what they learn in bad morals and wrong attitudes.

"The second point I'd like to get fixed in your mind is that if possible there should be some definite connection between the work you seek and the thing you are aiming at doing ultimately. One would not be going to an engineering school to learn to become a doctor nor working in a hospital if he hoped to become a great mechanical engineer. There must be some consistency.

"The third point is this: Success and wealth are not one and the same thing. In past years we have had a perfect deluge of success literature and it has left an entirely wrong impression. Every normal man of course desires to make a good living—that is entirely legitimate, but let's make a good life first—useful, creative, in some realm and dedicated to the improvement of mankind. No other sort of a life is legitimate. Get a definite purpose established, Bob, and then set out to make school and job and reading and travel and friends and contacts all help you accomplish that purpose. Apparently your work is going to be some sort of human engineering—you enjoy people rather than things. You seem to be dominated with altruistic motives. So let's find a job that will cast you with folks; meeting people; serving people in some capacity rather than cleaning machinery or keeping books or driving a car. One of the cardinal principles of finding the right job and keeping it lies in finding work which interests you. Having found a job that fits into your scheme of things and that interests and challenges you, then give it the very best you have.

"Of course you will have to begin at the bottom. Don't expect to be made vice president of the concern in a week merely because you're good looking! Determination, loyalty, integrity and perseverance are the factors in holding a desirable job after you get one. The same stuff it takes to get a desirable job it takes to hold one.

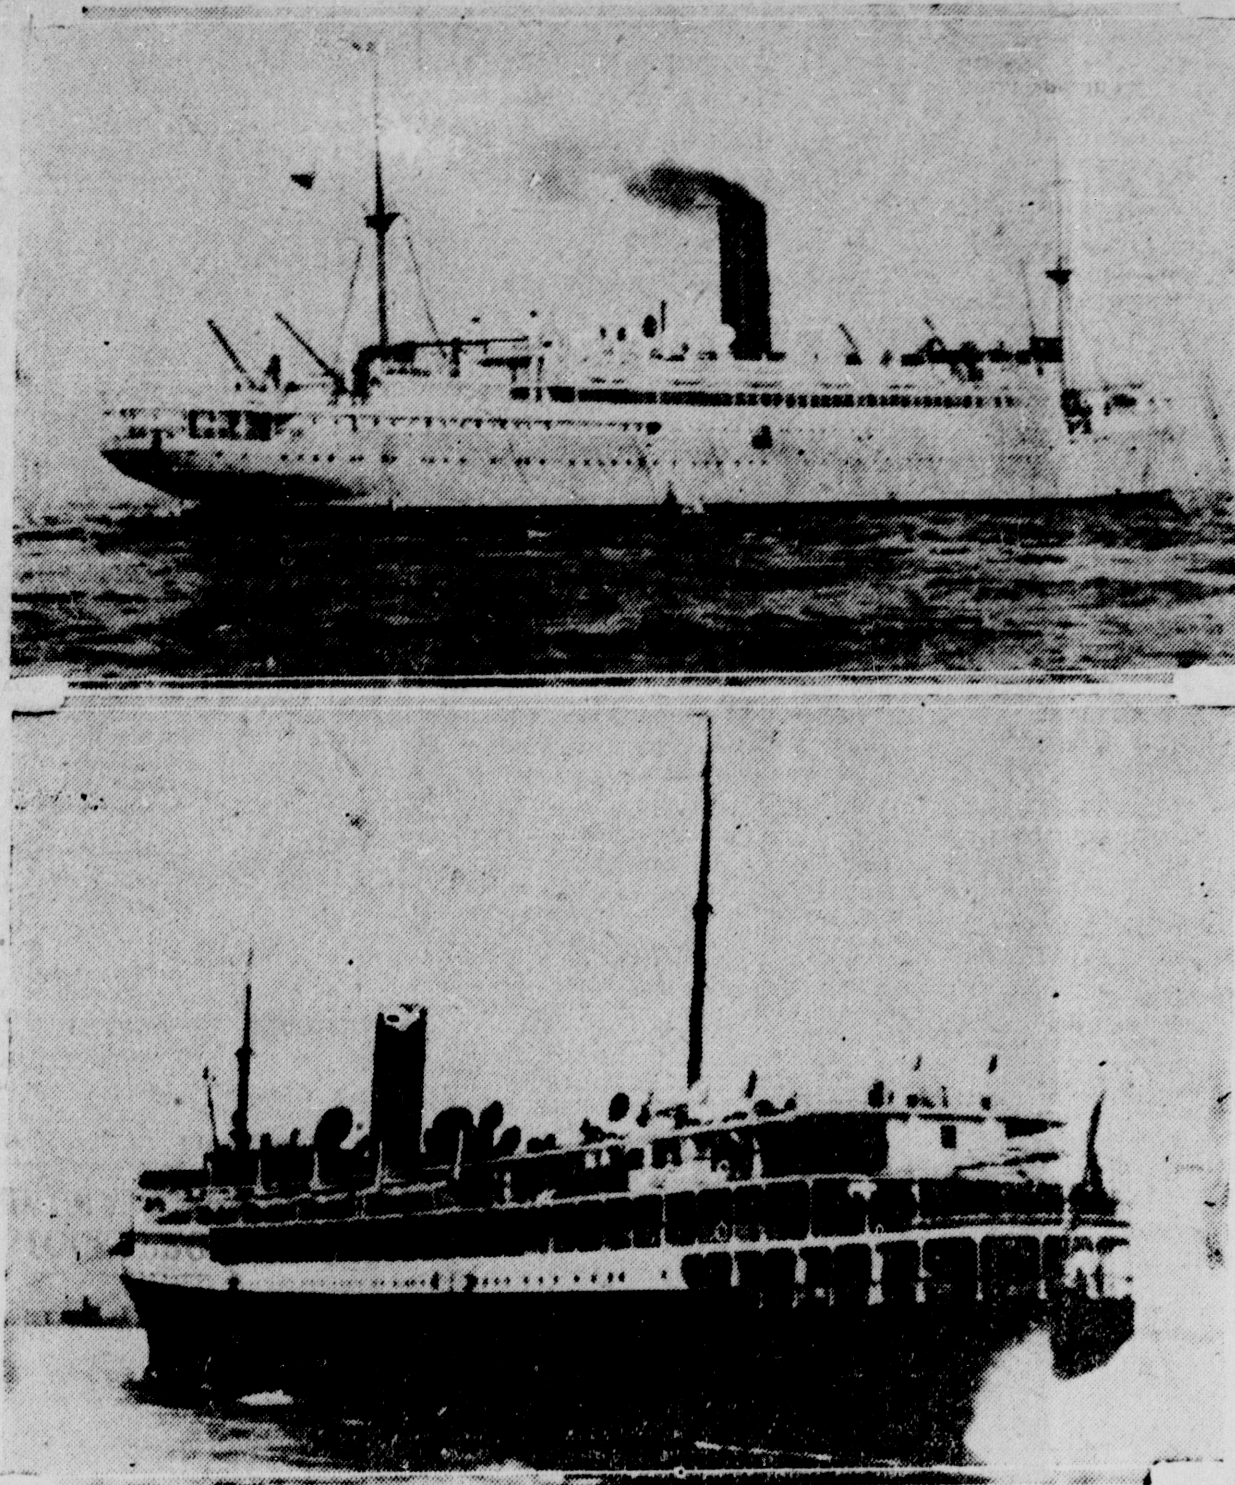

"Never work for any man to whom you cannot be loyal, personally, and to the standards of his business as well. To be efficient you must maintain always your own self-respect. Give full hours and an extra good measure always. The minute you begin working by the clock you join that vast army of folks who have no future in anything because they are 'getters' instead of 'givers.' Besides, the most common type of dishonesty today is 'stealing time.' When you make another contract with yourself to do better than is necessary, then you will love your work and your work will prosper amazingly.

"Now, Bob, about finding the job—that's up to you; a test of your own ingenuity and perseverance."

"In other words, Dad, it's strictly up to me, eh—all I get from you is some sound advice and your moral support?"

"That's it, boy, what more do you want, being a Smithhough?"

OCEAN LINERS CRASH

The Furness-Bermuda liner Fort Victoria, with 190 Bermuda-bound passengers aboard, was rammed by the Clyde liner Algonquin, laden with passengers for Florida and Texas, off Ambrose light. So severely was the Fort Victoria damaged that the passengers had to be transferred to several pilot boats that had arrived on the scene. Upper photo shows the Fort Victoria and the lower photo is of the Algonquin.

Her Identity a Mystery As She Remains in Coma

Only when this fair-haired girl, who has been in a coma for two days in the Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C., returns to consciousness, will the key to a mystery be furnished. Police have tried hard to piece together her disconnected story of a murder, a sinister dope ring, the death of her sister and the reason she tried to die by her own hand through poison. Her purse revealed a card bearing the name "Annette Brewster, Selma, Calif." and a baggage check from San Jose, Calif.
